

DELTA AIRELITE: VOTED BEST PRIVATE JET SERVICE

EXECUTIVE TRAVEL MAGAZINE

Experienced travelers and readers of Executive Travel magazine have weighed in. We are very pleased to announce that Delta AirElite has been voted first in Best Private Jet Service. Through their Leading Edge Awards, Executive Travel magazine honors the companies their readers value and respect most — because of first-rate customer service, products and innovations. Delta AirElite is truly honored to receive this award because ultimately it comes from you, our valued customer.

“The Leading Edge Awards honor companies that exceed our readers’ expectations in the areas of innovation and service—a commendable feat given the daunting challenges faced by the industry this year,” says Janet M. Libert, editor in chief of Executive Travel magazine. “The results reflect the stellar customer experience that frequent global travelers rely on when they are away from home.”

We are proud to be the brand you trust and rely upon first for your private jet travel needs. Delta AirElite as well as the other Leading Edge Award winners will be featured in the July/August issue of Executive Travel magazine and online at www.ExecutiveTravelMagazine.com.

FROM THE DESK OF MICHAEL GREEN

Welcome to this issue of Perspectives. I want to thank you for voting us first in Best Private Jet Service through Executive Travel magazine's Leading Edge Awards. Our commitment to bringing you outstanding service, value and innovation has not wavered in the past 25 years, and it will remain in the years ahead.

We're looking forward to the debut of Online Charter Quotes. This new feature will put instant, guaranteed, one-way pricing at your fingertips and make it easier than ever to book a charter. Let us know what you think!

This time of year means baseball, and we're very pleased to serve as the exclusive private jet service to both the New York Yankees and the New York Mets. It also means planning summer vacations and spending time outdoors. Delta AirElite can help you on both counts. Why not consider booking a trip with friends or family to Vail on one of the new aircraft we've added to our fleet? While you're there, take a tour of the preview center at the new Four Seasons Resort Vail — sure to be a destination unto itself. We welcome them as a new partner.

Also, be sure to read about our corporate commitment to offset our carbon emissions through a program developed by The Conservation Fund. Through this affiliation, we are providing opportunities to our staff and customers for positive environmental change.

Please never hesitate to let us know how we are doing. We look forward to serving you soon.

DELTA AIRELITE: NEW YORK BASEBALL'S EXCLUSIVE PRIVATE JET PROVIDER

Delta AirElite Business Jets is excited to be the official private jet provider for the New York Yankees and the New York Mets. This is part of a larger relationship Delta Air Lines, our parent company, has with both New York Ball Clubs.

"As the 2009 baseball season gets underway, we are very pleased that Delta AirElite will be supporting the players and personnel of both these teams with their travel needs," stated Michael B. Green, President and CEO of Delta AirElite. "With their demanding schedules, the flexibility and responsiveness that we can provide will be most welcome."

Delta Air Lines announced late last year that it was named "Official Airline of the New York Yankees" beginning in 2009, which included the private jet category for Delta AirElite. The new partnership with the New York Mets builds on an established relationship that the ball club had with Delta. Delta's signature presence at Citi Field, the new Mets world-class home, will be naming rights to the "Delta Sky360 Club," the exclusive 22,500-square foot Delta-branded club space located directly behind the 1,600 seats closest to home plate on the Sterling Level. The "Delta Sky360 Club" will provide guests visiting Citi Field a unique opportunity to sample elements of the Delta brand and AirElite.

DESTINATION: VAIL AFTER THE SNOW MELTS

In the summer months, visitors to this world-class city will find a multitude of both leisurely and adventurous activities while escaping the sometimes overwhelming winter crowds.

Enjoy hiking, backpacking or horseback riding in the White River National Forest and Wilderness Area. This beautifully preserved national treasure is home to more than 2.3 million acres, and is laced with trails fit for mountain biking or exploring by foot, as are places such as Spraddle Creek Ranch and Piney River Ranch both located north of Vail.

Gore Creek is a popular spot for anglers as trout and whitefish fill the ample waterways. If you're ready to enjoy the outdoor beauty of the area and release your wild side, try kayaking or rafting on the Eagle, Colorado or Arkansas rivers with both class I and II rapids. You'll find plenty of guided tours and gear rentals available for just about any outdoor activity you can imagine.

Of course it wouldn't be a Vail vacation without a bit of shopping. From the perfect pair of cowboy boots to jewelry and apparel, you're certain to find gifts and items you can't live without.

If you'd like to make Vail your summer getaway, Delta AirElite can take you there. For information on special packages for Delta AirElite customers, please contact your Sales Director at 1-877-323-5387.

DELTA AIR ELITE JOINS WITH FOUR SEASONS RESIDENCE CLUB VAIL

If you are interested in becoming a Residence Club owner in this picture-perfect, beautiful part of the country, you won't want to miss the unique benefits this new partnership provides. On an exclusive basis, Delta AirElite is offering the opportunity to experience a convenient travel solution during visits to and from Four Seasons Residence Club Vail. This fitting relationship represents an extension of Four Seasons' legendary service and hospitality.

"This relationship is a natural fit for Delta AirElite and the selective individuals who enjoy the Four Seasons quality of life," said Michael Green, president and chief executive officer of Delta AirElite. "Through this cooperation between two world-class brands, Four Seasons owners and potential buyers can experience firsthand the high value our Fleet Membership jet card program affords, as well as the comfort and convenience of our award-winning service."

Scheduled for completion in late 2009, Four Seasons Resort Vail will be a destination unto itself. If you'd like more information on the exclusive offers and benefits available through this relationship, please contact your AirElite Sales Director at 877-323-5387.

GO ZERO® WITH US!

Delta AirElite has undertaken a comprehensive effort designed to offset the carbon emissions associated with our private jet products, and the carbon footprint of our headquarter offices in Cincinnati. This program has been developed with The Conservation Fund, a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing America's land and water legacy.

As a Delta AirElite Fleet Member, you now have the opportunity to make a donation to The Conservation Fund that offsets your share of carbon emissions. All donations will be transferred to The Fund's Go Zero® program, which facilitates the planting of trees in protected areas to sequester carbon dioxide.

"There is a vigorous commitment among our customers and our employees to improve our environmental stewardship in all parts of our lives, and we are pleased to offer a program that allows us all to make a difference by getting involved personally in this important way," said Michael B. Green, President and CEO of Delta AirElite.

This year, the Go Zero® program will reforest areas in National Wildlife Refuges from New Jersey to Texas to South Carolina to Georgia. The Lower Mississippi River Valley area, which has lost more than 20 million acres of bottomland hardwood forest over the last century, will also remain a core focus. Since 2000, The Fund has restored nearly 20,000 acres and planted six million trees through its carbon sequestration program. Over their lifetime, these trees will capture an estimated 7.2 million tons of carbon dioxide equivalent from the atmosphere.

Delta Air Lines, our parent company, was the first commercial airline to offer customers the opportunity to offset the carbon emissions associated with their air travel and offers a similar program to passengers on its flights. Please contact Fleet Membership Sales at 877-323-5387 for details on how you can Go Zero®. For more information about The Conservation Fund, visit: www.conservationfund.org.
